RE: 2012 CPoW Annual Meeting Sponsorship Opportunities

Cattle Producers of Washington (CPoW) is pleased to announce our 2012 Annual Fall Meeting and Trade Show will be held Friday, October 26th at Pillar Rock Grill, 1373 Rd F.2 N.E., Moses Lake, WA

CPoW is a grassroots organization whose purpose is to sustain, improve and protect Washington State's live cattle industry; to address the market interests of Washington live cattle producers; and to promote the heritage of ranching for present and future generations.

Following its very successful 2011 Annual Meeting, CPoW will be expanding its 2012 Annual Meeting and will continue to seek guest speakers with the most current information on livestock issues impacting live cattle producers in Washington.

As the current President, I would appreciate your support in helping to sponsor the 2012 Annual Meeting. Cattle producers from across Washington State will be attending the meeting in Moses Lake, providing an excellent opportunity for your business to support the Washington cattle industry, showcase your products and gain even greater recognition among Washington cattle producers.

In order to sponsor the meeting, please refer to the attached sponsorship form. Simply mark the level of contribution you would like to make, complete the form, and return the form by email or mail to CPoW by June 15, 2012. To ensure your company name will be recognized throughout Washington State's cattle industry as a business we need to support, please remit payment no later than September 15, 2012.

We hope you will support the 2012 CPoW Annual Meeting and assist us in making it both enjoyable and informative for everyone.

Thank you for supporting CPoW.

Sincerely,

Nate Hair, President

Dave Dashiell, Vice-President
